"Amazing! Zounds! The vocabulary of exclamation seeks expression as the medium of awed and surprised reaction to the wondrous feats of THE PEKING ACROBATS! In their graceful efforts...these brightly costumed tumblers, acrobats, cyclists, jugglers and clever clowns provide 90 minutes of family fun that infuses springtime in New York with an extra measure of joy!"

— New York Times

"The physical feats of THE PEKING ACROBATS seem almost...surreal, defying laws of body mechanics and physics. It's like watching 'Crouching Tiger, Hidden Dragon' LIVE, without camera tricks creating special effects. All 26 members of this troupe are amazing athletes with grace and charisma in addition to their razor-sharp precision...everything entertainment should be, uplifting, awe-inspiring and an exploration of the full extent of human potential. When a show can fill you with the wonder of a 10 year-old, you know you have had a good time...that's success!"

— The Dance Insider

"A is for acrobats and astounding, amusing, audacious and accomplished, accurate and attractive and admirable, all of which describe, though not completely, THE PEKING ACROBATS!"

— Variety

"An afternoon of outstanding feats of agility, balance, coordination and showmanship by THE PEKING ACROBATS! An entertaining and instructive survey of the Asian circus arts!"

— The Boston Globe

"At no time have we seen anything like THE PEKING ACROBATS! Feats of clowning, dexterity, grace, and strength rippled from the stage in a series of pleasurable waves. One was left waterlogged in wonder."

— Chicago Tribune

"THE PEKING ACROBATS regularly passed from the seemingly impossible to the virtually unbelievable."

— Los Angeles Times
